

P. W. Thane

18 DEC 1963

STAT

This is to advise you of the status of your application for employment with us.

STAT

As [redacted] has explained to you, we shall be unable because of budgetary restrictions and organizational changes to offer you immediate employment. We can assure you that this situation does not reflect adversely on you but is purely a matter of the availability of a position commensurate with your qualifications. It is difficult to predict when changes might create a suitable vacancy for you. However, we can assure you that your application will be retained in an active status and we shall advise you if an appropriate opening should develop. In the meantime, if there should be any important change in your personal status or your interest in service with us, please let us know.

We regret that circumstances have not permitted us to offer you a specific appointment and appreciate very much your patience and cooperation while awaiting positive action on your application.

Sincerely,

Signed

E. D. Echols
Director of Personnel

Distribution:

- 0 - Addressee
- 1 - Subj File
- 1 - D/Pers chrono w/had
- ✓ - Lee Counsel

OD/Pers [redacted] smh (17 December 1963)

STAT